Price of the removed optical module board for sale

Overview

IPG Photonics YLS-17000 Fiber Laser Optical Splicer Beam Switch For sale is anIPG Photonics fiber laser optical module, believed to be abeam switch / fiber.

Key Takeaways

The price of removed or second-hand optical module boards varies widely, typically ranging from $50 to several hundred dollars depending on type, speed, and manufacturer.

Factors Affecting Price

Module Type and Speed: SFP (1G), SFP+ (10G), SFP28 (25G), QSFP/QSFP+ (40G), and CFP/QSFP28 (100G) modules have different price ranges, with higher-speed modules generally costing more. Manufacturer and Brand: Boards from major vendors like Huawei, Cisco, or Juniper often command higher prices due to reliability and compatibility. Condition: Removed or refurbished boards are usually cheaper than new ones, but prices depend on testing, warranty, and remaining lifespan.

Bulk Orders: Purchasing multiple modules or boards can reduce the per-unit cost, especially from wholesale suppliers. Typical Price RangesSFP Modules (1G): $50–$150 per unit SFP+ Modules (10G): $100–$300 per unit SFP28 Modules (25G): $200–$400 per unit High-Density Optical Boards (e.g., Huawei H901OXEG): Prices for full boards can range from $500 to over $1,000, depending on port count and features.

Where to Buy

Online Marketplaces: Alibaba, Made-in-China, and other electronics suppliers offer both new and removed optical modules at competitive prices. Specialized Resellers: Companies that specialize in refurbished telecom equipment often provide tested removed boards with limited warranties. OEM/Factory Options: Some manufacturers offer custom or bulk orders, which can be negotiated for cost savings.

In summary, the price of a removed optical module board depends on type, speed, manufacturer, and condition, with typical ranges from $50 for basic SFP modules to over $1,000 for high-density optical interface boards. For accurate pricing, it is recommended to contact suppliers directly for quotes on the specific board model you need.
